WELL DONE TO
RYAN DAUGHTERY
&
LORCAN WILLIAMSON

ON SECURING THEIR PLACES ON THE NATIONAL SQUAD RYAN AND LORCAN
HAVE BEEN SELECTED TO COMPETE IN BELGIUM AND REPRESENT ENGLAND

WELL DONE TO SENSEI TOM
ON BEING ASKED TO BE THE TEAM BJC REFEREE
REPRESENTING ENGLAND

"We are all very proud of you"

KOI BRISTOL

This competition is usually a favourite with our club, with not having to far to travel. But, on this occasion we had only 2 entries.

The Medal Winners were:

Gold REECE PROUT
Bronze RYAN DAUGHTERY

ALL THINGS GRADING AND KATA

KATA practice or learn kata at the club on Tuesdays 5-6pm until further notice
Those wishing to grade MUST do their kata requirement before they can be entered by the Club

Reminder those wishing to grade must attend 4 individual weeks to be considered for grading . No exceptions.

When going to area or club gradings please note grades are awarded not won
Prepare yourself to receive just one grade.

If a green belt and above ,wazari and ippon are the only scores that count
If you do not score these in your pool, the possibility is you may not grade.
A total of 3 wins is expected.

For the Club to operate successfully and efficiently
We need the help of volunteers.

We need the following to help us

- Press officer to publicise our successes
- Licence secretary to renew BJC licences
- Stock controller to organise and order stock and do a termly stock take.

Induction and Training available
Speak to Sensei Jacky or Sensei Janet

ATTENTION ATTENTION

If you want to enter any competition not listed in the diary dates, that you have found on the internet or given to you from another instructor from another club or association.

The entry form needs to be countersigned by your club sensei.

By entering competitions without approval may disqualify you from your BJC insurance as some associations DO NOT HAVE THE CORRECT COVER.

It is also BJC and our club policy that you are NOT TO HAVE DUAL MEMBERSHIP i.e. not to be a member of another club or enter as a member of another club.

IF IN DOUBT YOU MUST ASK THE SENIOR SENSEIS WHO WILL GUIDE YOU
